

Hypocrisy

When a farmer stops plowing his land, stops planting seed, and ceases to harvest -- he stops being a farmer. This is evident, for he has stopped doing those things which identify him as a farmer.

When a Christian stops attending services, stops studying the Bible, stops taking the Lord's supper, stops singing, praying and giving as he prospered, he has stopped being a Christian.

Kyle Campbell