

How To Be An Unfaithful Christian

If you have ever wondered what it takes to be unfaithful, here are some convenient suggestions:

- Identify with a congregation, but do not get involved.
- Head to the lake most weekends so you can “worship” God in nature.
- Do whatever gives you pleasure. You can ask for forgiveness later.
- Never bring your faith into your home or business. People might label you a religious fanatic.
- Display a Bible in your home. It looks nice when company comes.
- Chauffeur your children to and from worship services. Let God know that you are trying your best to be a good parent.
- Squeal loudly when someone gets on the subject of money. Jesus never asked anyone for a donation.
- Daydream during the sermons. You have heard all that stuff before.

Of course, these suggestions are facetious, but are they true for you? Can you be “fervent in spirit, serving the Lord” (Romans 12:11)?

Kyle Campbell