

What Should Children Know?

Judges 2:10 says, "... and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the Lord, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel." The following lists were taken from a book about teaching teachers. Since there has been so much time that has gone by, I no longer recall the exact name of the book. I hope it will give parents and Bible class teachers a useful benchmark for their children's level of knowledge concerning the Bible.
